

We often buy herbs for just one recipe, and can end up throwing them away. Handy tip - chop up leftover herbs, pop in an ice cube tray, cover with olive oil and freeze. It's a great way to have herbs ready for roasts and soups!

